Fireproof A Sound Insulation Acoustic Sandwich Panel 0.4-0.8mm Steel Thickness Moisture Resistant

Product Description:

Acoustic Sandwich Panel

Acoustic Sandwich Panel is an excellent sound absorbing panel which is used for a variety of applications, including sound insulation, sound absorption, and insulation. It is made of high-density Rockwool and Glasswool, and steel with a thickness of 0.4-0.8mm. It is a modern design style with a customized length to meet different customer needs. It is highly effective in providing sound insulation and sound absorption, while also having excellent insulating properties.

The Acoustic Sandwich Panel has a density range of 60-200kg/m³, and is specifically designed to reduce sound reverberation, improve soundproofing, and provide thermal insulation. It also provides a great aesthetic value with its modern design style, making it perfect for a variety of applications.

The Acoustic Sandwich Panel is a great choice for acoustic and thermal insulation, as it is lightweight yet durable, and can easily be customized to fit any space. Whether you're looking for sound absorption, sound insulation, or insulation, the Acoustic Sandwich Panel is the perfect solution for you.
